Welcome to Time Travel

Consider you are a person who works in a IT company in Diagonal Mar Centre Commercial . It's an usual thursday and you are just walking down the streets of Barcelona . Sun is shining , people are heading towards their daily routine . You grab a regular iced latte from coffee casa . After a quater mile you see something unusual in the cracks of buildings which were abandoned . You saw a light explosion and you couldn't hear a sound, but it's too bright to watch with your naked eyes . You thought it's some construction work so you continue to your office . As soon as you reach the office, you find your friend, Ted, waiting for you near the lift

 Hey ted whats up man ?
